Caring for Sick Children

- Assessment by a specialty trained pediatric nurse each visit
- Educating parents on disease management and special procedures
- Acute or long-term high technology needs
- Mechanical Ventilation teaching and Apnea monitoring
- Obtaining blood from central lines to monitor progress of children with cancer and other illnesses
- Congenital anomaly teaching
- Diabetic teaching and monitoring
- Asthma teaching and monitoring
- Tube feeding (parenteral nutrition) via NG tube, GT, JT teaching
- Use of Telemed to monitor vital signs
- Referral to community resources as needed
- Failure to thrive (FTT): teaching and monitoring

High Risk Pregnancies

- Maternal and fetal assessment at each visit
- Patient education for self-care during pregnancy
- Education for the care of a newborn
- Hyperemesis management including IV therapy
- Diabetic teaching and monitoring
- Preterm labor teaching and monitoring
- Hypertension management and monitoring

Maternal & Child Health

- Comprehensive assessment including weight check
- Breast or bottle feeding education
- Newborn and Infant normal development assessment
- Bilirubin check
- SIDS prevention
- Cord and circumcision care
- Collaboration with WIC and Early Intervention

Pediatric Palliative Care

Our team of home care professionals supports you and your child from diagnosis through every step of treatment, no matter what the outcome. The goal of this program is to alleviate suffering – physical, emotional and/or spiritual – and to improve your child’s and family’s quality of life.

Contact Us...

To inquire about Lifetime Care services, or to arrange for patient care, please call: 1-585-214-1000 or 1-800-724-1410.

© 2014, Lifetime Care. All rights reserved.